On April 7th, 1906, the National Academy of Design and the Society of American Artists were united.

THE FOUNDERS.

On the 8th of November, 1825, a number of young Artists and Students established the New York Drawing Association; and soon after, on the 19th of January, 1826, they resolved themselves into a new organization, to be known as the National Academy of the Arts of Design. They thereupon chose from their number fifteen artists, who were directed to choose fifteen others, the thirty thus selected to constitute the new society.

Of this body of Founders of the National Academy of Design, whose names are here recorded, the last survivor, Thomas S. Cummings, N.A., who was for many years the Treasurer, and at one time the Vice-President of the Academy, died September 25, 1894.

A NEW KIND OF A MAGAZINE

ARTS & DECORATION

Is the standard magazine for all Americans interested in art. It expresses that appreciation of art which marks the higher development of American life.

It not only contains the most recent work in decorative art, and reviews of current exhibitions, but also illustrates the work of the more prominent painters, sculptors, and architects in complete articles written by those who know most about it. Numerous articles show what the crafts workers and schools are doing to promote better work.

ARTS & DECORATION is the only American art magazine to cover these fields thoroughly. It contains nearly a thousand illustrations each year, printed on the finest paper befitting the beauty of the subjects with which it deals.

On April 7th, 1906, the National Academy of Design and the Society of American Artists were united.

THE FOUNDERS.

On the 8th of November, 1825, a number of young Artists and Students established the New York Drawing Association; and soon after, on the 19th of January, 1826, they resolved themselves into a new organization, to be known as the National Academy of the Arts of Design. They thereupon chose from their number fifteen artists, who were directed to choose fifteen others, the thirty thus selected to constitute the new society.

Of this body of Founders of the National Academy of Design, whose names are here recorded, the last survivor, Thomas S. Cummings, N.A., who was for many years the Treasurer, and at one time the Vice-President of the Academy, died September 25, 1894.

ARTS & DECORATION

Is the standard magazine for all Americans interested in art. It expresses that appreciation of art which marks the higher development of American life.

It not only contains the most recent work in decorative art, and reviews of current exhibitions, but also illustrates the work of the more prominent painters, sculptors, and architects in complete articles written by those who know most about it. Numerous articles show what the crafts workers and schools are doing to promote better work.
